

Mama ♥ in the Now

About Me

Tove Maren Stakkestad is a Danish American freelance writer and translator. She is the mother of four young boys, a blogger, brand ambassador and has spent 20+ years in the Private Wealth Management industry. Her love for the written word and word smithing started during her childhood in Denmark where she was raised in a bilingual family. She is fluent in Danish, English, corporate jargon, sarcasm and the unspoken language between mothers.

About Mama in the Now

Mama in the Now started in late 2013 as a blog focused on empowering mothers to parent by intuition and with confidence. Tove Maren reports live from the trenches of motherhood where she writes about raising her four rather inquisitive little men. Her writing is uplifting, informative, some times funny and always relatable.
